

Arabic in New Mexico:

A Common Past and Shared Future

June 8-July 13 2016

UNM Main Campus

Earn 3 College
Credits!

Grades 7-12
+ Rising College
Freshmen!

Free Intensive Arabic Course!

Free Lunch and Extracurricular Activities!

- ❖ Middle and high school students are invited to apply to the 2016 Arabic STARTALK program at the University of New Mexico
- ❖ Free intensive Arabic course focusing on connections between New Mexico and Arab communities past and present.
- ❖ STARTALK is a federally funded program to promote critical language education

For more information visit www.fl.unm.edu or email Dr. Emma Trentman, etrentman@unm.edu

Application Deadline: April 22, 2016

Department of Foreign Languages & Literatures